FT MBA
Full-Time Master of Business Administration
CHOOSE AN MBA THAT PUTS YOU FIRST

Cohort learning is an integral part of the SFU Beedie MBA. With a typical class of just 55 students, the learning experience is as personalized and interactive as it gets.

You’ll have the freedom and space to explore your interests, discover your strengths and take risks in a collegial, supportive environment. Your classmates will become lifelong friends and invaluable business connections.

And you’ll graduate with a business management toolkit that applies across industries, providing you with more career options and greater mobility.
ENGAGE YOUR BRAIN
GET AN MBA IN JUST 12 MONTHS

The SFU Beedie MBA combines theory and application to give you the strong grounding in business fundamentals required to take your career to where you want it to be.

As you move through the 12-month academic component, expect to become immersed in deep, thought-probing questions and extensive study. Instead of memorizing textbooks and taking standardized tests, you’ll learn through interactive and experiential learning methods.

And it all takes place in the centre of Vancouver’s diverse, vibrant and entrepreneurial business community.

When you graduate, you’ll embark on the next stage of your career equipped with in-demand business skills and a 360-degree view of how businesses operate today.

WHERE THEORY MEETS APPLICATION
UNDERSTAND BUSINESS AT A DEEPER LEVEL

Our comprehensive, engaging curriculum incorporates real-world business challenges and explores relevant topics such as sustainability, entrepreneurship and international business.

The three semesters flow seamlessly into each other. This lets you apply what you learn as you progress through the program.

CROSS-SEMESTER

HOW TO THINK LIKE A MANAGER
This unique course spans across the year – including a one day intensive at the start of each semester preparing you for what’s ahead.

- Introduction to Managerial Thought

FALL

ESSENTIAL BUSINESS SKILLS
Our students have different educational backgrounds, so we start by ensuring everyone has a common foundation in key analytical and quantitative business skills.

- Leadership & Teamwork
- Financial/Managerial Accounting
- Business Ethics
- Financial Management
- Managing a Globalized Workforce
- Managing People & Organizations
- Business & Indigenous Communities
- Business & Indigenous Peoples

SPRING

ORGANIZATIONAL DYNAMICS
Here’s where things get really interactive as you learn about effective leadership. Challenges will be thrown at you, and you’ll need to work fast as a team to solve them.

- Marketing Management
- Managerial Economics
- Business Analytics
- Managing Information
- Managing Global Enterprises
- Negotiation & Conflict Resolution
- Organizational Analysis

SPRING/SUMMER

CROSS-CULTURAL EXPERIENCE
The cross-cultural experiential project is a program highlight. Choose between two international destinations for a global business perspective and gain a broader understanding of working in a multi-cultural business environment. You’ll broaden your experience and gain valuable insights.

SUMMER

INNOVATION AND STRATEGY
Tie everything together so you can apply what you’ve learned. Explore your creative side, and dive into sustainability, entrepreneurship and other hot topics.

- Entrepreneurship
- Operations Management
- Sustainability
- Business Strategy
- Capstone Simulation

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE: APPLY WHAT YOU’VE LEARNED
At the end of the 12-month academic program, you have three options to apply what you have learned. In each case, you deliver a report after four months as the final part of your degree. Your options are:

- Undertake a paid 4-month work term
- Start your own new venture through Coast Capital Savings Venture Connection
- Move straight into a permanent role
BEEN THERE, DONE THAT

LEARN FROM THE BEST IN BUSINESS

Our faculty members not only know the business world inside out, but they also know how to bring it to life in the classroom. Small class sizes let them get to know you well and focus on your development.

“We believe that the next generation of leaders will contribute to the betterment of society. That’s why we emphasize real world problem solving and challenge our students to envision new ways of working and define new criteria for success.”

— Stephanie Bertels

STEPHANIE BERTELS, PhD (University of Calgary); MSc (Stanford University)
Associate Professor, Technology, Operations Management/Innovation & Entrepreneurship and Director, Centre for Corporate Governance and Sustainability

Dr. Bertels is an environmental engineer and holds a PhD in strategy and global management and sustainable development. Stephanie leads 'The Embedding Project' where she works with dozens of global companies, their leadership teams and their boards to help them to embed sustainability into their operations and decision-making. She is also the faculty mentor for our Net Impact chapter.
FACULTY PROFILES

ERIC WERKER, PhD (Harvard University)
Associate Professor, Strategy and International Business

Eric Werker is Associate Professor in the Beedie School of Business at Simon Fraser University and academic lead from SFU to the Canadian International Resources and Development Institute. Eric researches how less developed countries can build more thriving and inclusive private sectors, particularly when they are rich in natural resources, and how international actors can play a positive role in creating successful societies.

MILA LAZAROVA, PhD and MS (Rutgers)
Associate Professor, International Business, Director, Centre for Global Workforce Strategy, and Canada Research Chair in Global Workforce Management

Dr. Lazarova received her PhD from Rutgers and has continued to focus her research on expatriate management, global and boundaryless careers, international mobility practices, and comparative human resource management. She has been recognized with the Canada Research Chair which promotes scholarship excellence, the creation of world-class centres of research, and the enhancement of Canada’s competitiveness in the global economy.

IT’S NOT ALL BUSINESS
EVERYTHING IS IN PLACE FOR A MEMORABLE YEAR

Our cohort approach and downtown location combine to deliver a rich, immersive and interactive learning experience. Extra-curricular opportunities offer a way to uncover different leadership opportunities, hone your business skills and build richer networks.

CROSS-CULTURAL EXPERIENCES

Between the Spring and Summer terms, you will have a choice between two international cross-cultural experiences. The cross-cultural experience is designed to expose students to a new cultural and institutional setting in ways that will not only educate you about this particular culture, but will also help you gain a broader understanding of the complexities of working in a multi-cultural business environment.

“
I’ll never forget our international study trip to Brazil. It was hard work but we all bonded, and it was a great chance to get to know the professors better, too.”

CASE COMPETITIONS

Compete with other MBAs across the globe to solve real-world business challenges. SFU Beedie helps fund student participation and provides faculty support, mentoring and resources. Students keep any prize money they win.

MBA GAMES

Each year, SFU Beedie sends up to 40 students to the Canadian MBA Games. Compete in sport, academia and enjoy a host of other activities. We subsidize costs of participation, help students prepare and provide logistical support.

CONFERENCES AND EVENTS

Attend numerous events throughout the program, including guest lecturers and industry conferences. Hear from speakers as diverse as Nobel Prize-winning economist Alvin Roth and Netflix CMO Kelly Bennett (also an SFU alumni).

STUDENT CLUBS

The Beedie MBA has a number of student led organisations to get involved in, such as the Net Impact Executive and the Graduate Business Women’s Council. The Net Impact Executive strives to make a positive environmental, social and economic impact in the Vancouver community and beyond by advocating responsible and sustainable business practices. The Graduate Business Women’s council develops knowledge sharing and networking opportunities between students and executive women.

You’ll have access to these services even after you’ve graduated.
Ryan Cross
MBA 2015, Founder and CEO, Distill Analytics

“I wasn’t looking to build any more of my research credentials. I was looking for a new skillset. The MBA gave me the opportunity to really widen my skills and knowledge, to showcase what I can really do.”

Moreniake Akinyemi
MBA 2014, Consultant, Strategy & Operations, Deloitte

“The program helped me change the way I would see a problem or assess a situation. Now, I understand how an organization functions from different perspectives. I can assess all of these different perspectives and connect how they can fit together into an overarching strategy.”

Kelly Scott-Gray
MBA 2014, Project Manager, Lululemon

“I liked the small class sizes. It’s a lot easier to become friends with 50 people than 150 people, and I now also have a great international network.”

YOUR DREAM CLASSROOM

STUDY IN THE HEART OF VANCOUVER’S BUSINESS DISTRICT

Vancouver isn’t just about spectacular mountain and ocean vistas and our mild climate. It’s a gateway to the Asia-Pacific region and a centre of entrepreneurship in Canada and North America.

Vancouver’s dynamic and supportive business community has seen it establish itself as Canada’s tech start-up hub. This has in turn prompted Boeing, Facebook, Amazon and Microsoft to set up local offices, as well as attracting the world-renowned TED Conference to the city.

THE BUILDING

You will spend most of your days at the Segal Graduate School campus in the heart of Downtown Vancouver.

Its 60,000 square feet accommodates the finest in meeting and classroom facilities. The central location makes commuting easy and helps integrate you into the local business community. It also provides easy access to Vancouver’s dining and entertainment scene for those all-important post class get-togethers.

“The class sizes were perfect. They were small enough to feel intimate, while still providing the resources you need to learn effectively.”

— Jeri Dutz
2014 MBA Graduate
SFU Beedie MBA students enjoy priority access to SFU’s apartment-style Downtown Vancouver Residence, which is at the centre of a dynamic living and learning community of entrepreneurship and ideas.

Opened in 2016, the residence is in the same building as the Charles Chang Institute for Entrepreneurship, which offers entrepreneurship training to all SFU students. The Institute is also home to Radius SFU, a successful social innovation lab and venture incubator.

Living at the residence lets you live in the heart of Vancouver—recognized as one of the most livable downtown areas in North America—and walk to class. You can choose from a range of accommodation options, from studios to 2-bedroom and study units. Shared amenities provide all the comforts of home.
